Mission Statement

We are called to be the hands and face of Jesus as we learn love and grow together.

Statement of Aims

The community of St Vincent de Paul School aims to serve as a witness to Our Lord Jesus Christ and to the Catholic Faith at all times. We believe that parents are the first and foremost educators of their children and that we are called to support them in their God-given task.

Every child in our school is valued. They are encouraged to reach human wholeness, spiritually, morally, emotionally and academically, within a happy, secure Catholic Christian environment.

We aim to provide the best possible Religious Education for each child and a happy, productive working environment for every staff member.

Rationale of Religious Education:

- The primary purpose of Catholic Religious Education is to come to know and understand God's revelation which is fulfilled in the person of Jesus Christ. In the person of Christ, the deepest meaning of what it is to be human, that we are created by God and through the Holy Spirit united with Christ in his Incarnation, is discovered. This revelation is known through the scriptures and the tradition of the Church as taught by the Magisterium. Religious Education helps the pupil to know and experience the meaning of this revelation in his or her own life and the life of the community which is the Church.¹
- Religious Education is a core subject in our Catholic school.
- For some in the classroom, Religious Education may well be received as catechesis, deepening and enhancing their personal faith; for some it will be evangelisation, the first time they will have been presented, personally, with the truths of living faith. Nevertheless, its primary purpose is the step by step study of the mystery of Christ, the teaching of the Church and its application in daily life. The criteria by which it is to be judged are educational.²
- Religious Education is planned, taught, assessed and monitored with the same rigour as other core curriculum subjects.

The outcome of Religious Education is religiously literate and engaged young people who have the knowledge, understanding and skills – appropriate to their age and capacity – to reflect spiritually, and think ethically and theologically, and who are aware of the demands of religious commitment in everyday life.³

The Aims of Religious Education

- To present a comprehensive content which engages pupils and is the basis of knowledge and understanding of the Catholic faith;
- To enable pupils continually to deepen their religious and theological understanding and be able to communicate this effectively;
- To present an authentic vision of the Church's moral and social teaching so that pupils can make a critique of the underlying trends in contemporary culture and society;
- To raise pupils' awareness of the faith and traditions of other religious communities in order to respect and understand them;
- To develop the critical faculties of pupils so that they can relate their Catholic faith to daily life;
- To stimulate pupils' imagination and provoke a desire for personal meaning as revealed in the truth of the Catholic faith;
- To enable pupils to relate the knowledge gained through Religious Education to their understanding of other subjects in the curriculum;
- To bring clarity to the relationship between faith and life, and between faith and culture.⁴

Curriculum time allocation:

In line with Bishops' Conference recommendations, 10% of curriculum time is allocated to Religious Education. This is over and above the time dedicated to include Collective Worship.

Programme of Study:

To fulfil the above aims and to address the 4 areas of study outlined in the Curriculum Directory – Revelation, Church, Celebration and Life in Christ, 'The Way the Truth and the Life' programme is used. This programme is supplemented by other resources to ensure that it offers sufficient challenge and extension.

Process

Our starting point in Religious Education is Revelation. God is always the initiator in the history of our creation and redemption; it is his revealing of himself that makes classroom religious education possible. To begin with revelation ensures that we respect the revealed nature of Christian faith.

From revelation we move onto Church; in other words, we consider how revelation gives life to the Church. The Church is the bearer of God's revelation and the means by which human beings live out their response to revelation, enlivened by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ Religious Education Curriculum Directory, Catholic Bishops' Conference, 2012, p. 6

From here we focus on two aspects of the Church's response to God's revelation; Celebration – the liturgical and sacramental life of the Church and Life in Christ the moral life and the pursuit of holiness.

However, attempts to make clear connections between the truths of faith and the pupils' experience of life are essential.⁵

Methodology

Teaching in Religious Education should help people be attentive to the meaning of their experiences, illumined by the light of the Gospel, so that they may respond to God more fully. Experience can also make the Christian message more intelligible. It 'serves in the examination and acceptance of the truths which are contained in the deposit of Revelation.'⁶

A variety of teaching and learning strategies will be used from across the curriculum adapted appropriately to the needs and learning styles of pupils.

Assessment, Monitoring, Recording and Reporting

- Assessment of standards is carried out according to Diocesan guidelines using the criteria in the Draft Nationally Agreed Standards (as authorised by Bishops' Conference). Knowledge content for this is still under review (as at Sep 19).
- The school portfolio of pupils' work contains locally and Diocesan agreed and moderated standards
- In school moderation of work is carried out termly. Opportunities for working with the Diocese and other schools to standardise work are taken wherever possible
- The school engages with Diocesan moderation of standards each year.
- Progress and achievement in Religious Education is reported to parents/carers in a written report at the end of each academic year.

Management of the subject

The leadership of RE is coordinated by three members of staff who all have responsibility for leading, managing and supporting the delivery of and training in Religious Education. Two of the team are members of the Senior Leadership Team.

- Mrs Hargrave: Oversight of EYFS & KS1 RE
- Mrs White: Oversight of KS2 RE and assessment of RE
- Mr White: Oversight of Catholic Life

Other Faiths

Some aspects of the teaching about other Faiths and Religions is covered within the scheme, especially in Year 5. However senior leaders do not feel that this is adequate coverage for all pupils and will review annually how this aspect of teaching will be addressed.

The Role of the Subject Leadership Team for Religious Education

The Religious Education Team will be responsible for:

- Working with senior leaders on monitoring teaching and learning, planning and standards through lesson observations and work scrutinises according to school practice.
- Organising and maintaining the school portfolio of pupils' work.
- Organising in-house moderation of standards meetings.
- Self evaluation to identify strengths and areas for development.
- Ensuring the curriculum offered is appropriate, suitable and relevant to pupils' needs and interests.
- Promoting effective pedagogy for a creative RE curriculum
- Attending appropriate training and keeping up to date with current thinking, policy and developments and feeding back to staff.
- Organising and leading in-house staff training and development.
- Identifying training needs of staff to ensure their suitability to teach effective Religious Education.
- Supporting and advising colleagues in the delivery of Religious Education.
- Liaising with the Westminster Diocesan Education Service (WDES), the Catholic Education Service (CES), the Headteacher, Governors, parents and pupils.
- Auditing, managing and developing resources within a given budget.
